00B. Several months ago Supply Management Branch, Supply Division, (SMB) initiated a project of reviewing slow-moving items stocked in the Agency's supply system. This review was conducted for the purpose of identifying items that are considered obsolete and/or have been compromised. As a result of this review, disposal action is being taken on 67 line items, totalling $296,644. These items are components of the KW-7 cryptographic system which was compromised. In addition, 631 line items are being placed on the Agency's excess list as they are considered obsolete by the user components. [redacted]

C. The Agency interior design consultant recently requested Supply Management Branch, SD, to stock the unitized wood secretarial desk manufactured by Rishel, in place of the Alma desk which is now carried in the Agency inventory. The Rishel desk had been the Agency standard for a number of years before it was discontinued in 1984. Rishel has now decided to re-enter the secretarial desk market and their product is included on the GSA schedule. [redacted]
